

JOIN US TODAY

Formerly known as Trails Country Center for the Arts, the Center officially changed the name to Winnsboro Center for the Arts in April 2009. The new name was selected to better identify our geographic location and to express our pride in the City of Winnsboro (and its many talented artists).

We're also excited about the kick-off of a new season of programming, classes and events.

We encourage you to join us. Fill out your information below and mail your payment, cash or check, with the form to WCA, PO Box 342, Winnsboro, TX 75494. The chart on the reverse side details our various levels of support. Your donations remain tax deductible.

Thank you!
